OFFICE ACTION

Notice of Defective Appeal Brief

1. The revised Appeal Brief, filed on September 12, 2003, remains defective for at least the following reason(s):

I. The brief includes a statement that claims 1-6 and 8-16 (Groups II-V) do not stand or fall together, but fails to present valid reasons in support thereof as required under 37 CFR § 1.192(c)(7). See MPEP § 1206.

2. Regarding Item I, above, concerning appellant's grouping of claims, appellant's statement in the brief that certain claims do not stand or fall together is not agreed with because appellant fails to offer any explanation as to why the claims of each group are believed to be separately patentable, in the manner required by 37 CFR § 1.192(c)(7), which states:

(7) Grouping of claims. For each ground of rejection which appellant contests and which applies to a group of two or more claims, the Board shall select a single claim from the group and shall decide the appeal as to the ground of rejection on the basis of that claim alone unless a statement is included that the claims of the group do not stand or fall together and, in the argument under paragraph (c)(8) of this section, appellant explains why the claims of the group are believed to be separately patentable. Merely pointing out differences in what the claims cover is not an argument as to why the claims are separately patentable.

Appellant's arguments merely point out differences in the claims, which is not an argument as to why the claims are separately patentable, as explicitly set forth by rule in 37 CFR § 1.192(c)(7).

3. Therefore, for purposes of appeal, claims 1-6 and 8-16 should all stand or fall together as a single group (Group II), since appellant's brief does not include both a statement that these claims do not stand or fall together and valid reasons in support thereof.

4. Applicant is given a time period of ONE (1) MONTH or THIRTY (30) DAYS from the mailing date of this notice, whichever is longer, within which to supply the required omission or correction, in order to avoid abandonment. EXTENSIONS OF THIS TIME PERIOD MAY BE GRANTED UNDER 37 CFR 1.136(a).
